Friends and Family

To our A1 Grandma,

Thank you. Thank you for the lessons, the hugs, the meals, and the smiles. They brought us a long way. Keep on dancing in heaven, cause ain't no party like a Jimmie B party. We love you forever and ever.

Obituary

On March 30, 1944, Jimmie Mae Barnes was born in Montgomery, AL to the late Jimmie Lee & Elzora Harris. Jimmie Mae was baptized as a young girl, by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. She departed this life on July 16, 2022.

In 1964, she moved to Cincinnati, OH, where she began her career with the Board of Education and retired after 32 years. At the Board of Education, she worked in Cincinnati Public Schools teaching English, Math and Computer Courses. She also coached the drill team and enjoyed many activities involving the youth. She encouraged all children in her life to think and was adamant about getting an education.

She was a faithful member of Lee Chapel A.M.E Church, where she served on the senior usher board and the stewardess board, and enjoyed helping the youth by cooking and assisting in any way she could.

She was preceded in death by: her children, Monisa Barnes and Chiquita Barnes; her grandchildren, Shanvettechelle Berry, Cortez Berry and Valencia Berry; and her sisters, Patricia King, Barbara Garrison, Sara Jefferson, Emma Coachman and Loretha Carter.

Jimmie Mae leaves to cherish her memories: her children, Andre (Derickera) Harris, Stacie (Robert) Doyle, Lashawn (James) Jackson and Chauncey (Marilyn) Barnes; her beautiful 16 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren; her loving sisters, Bernice Ligon of Clinton MD, Elzora (William) Cooper of Montgomery AL, Annie Harris of Washington, DC and Jacquelin Perkins of Montgomery, AL; and a brother-in-law, Joe King of Pensacola, FL; her chosen family, Scherlynnne Hicks, Kim Burton, Glenn Davis and Kym Davis; Two-thirds of "The Weather Girls", Ms. Doris Rice and Ms. Gloria Smart, whom she loved dearly; her life-long friends, Mr. Jerome Tuggle and Mr. Donald Daniels; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
