

*A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is still.
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.*

Obituary

Deborah Jarmon Hall-Jarmon (maiden name Jarmon) was born on June 21, 1950, in Cincinnati, Ohio to Lottie Pearl Jarmon and Edward “Poppy” Hairston. Deborah went to rest on November 2, 2023. Deborah was the oldest of four siblings, Barbara Wynn, Johnny Jarmon, Donald Jarmon and Denise Jarmon. Deborah was a mother to Denise Jarmon and Kimberly Jarmon and married Fred Hall on June 15, 2001.

Deborah spent her early childhood and young adult years in Avondale and attended South Avondale Elementary, Samuel Ach Junior High and Hughes High School. Deborah was a Certified Nurse Assistance and did private duty assistance until she retired.

Deborah was baptized at New Friendship Baptist Church at a young age and moved to Rockdale Baptist. Deborah loved the Lord and practiced her faith.

Deborah was someone everyone knew, loved and respected. Deborah was a phenomenal woman. She was sophisticated, outspoken, smart and educated. After the death of the family’s matriarch (Annie Mae Guerrant), she became the matriarch and historian of the family. Deborah had a big heart and from Avondale to Bond Hill to North College Hill, Deborah’s home was a place for family and social gatherings.

Deborah was known for her passion for bowling and established her own bowling team, DJ’s Five in 1985. DJ’s Five bowled and traveled across the states to compete in tournaments for over 30 years. Deborah was the president and secretary of DJ’s Five. Deborah was their leader and had a special connection with her bowling family.

Deborah was known to be the life of the party and loved to dance; there wasn’t a line dance Deborah did not know.

Deborah loved to travel and enjoyed spending time with her beloved husband, family and friends.

Deborah was a loving, daughter, sibling, granddaughter, mother, wife, aunt, cousin, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. Deborah will never be forgotten and will always be missed.

Deborah is preceded in death by her parents, Lottie Pearl Jarmon and Edward “Poppy” Hairston; siblings, Barbara Wynn, Donald Jarmon and Denise Jarmon; and grandson, Shaquillie Lovell Jarmon. She leaves behind her loving husband, Fred Hall; brother, Johnny Jarmon; daughters, Denise Jarmon and Kimberly Jarmon; stepchildren, Arnetha Hall, Jerry Dwayne Hall, Terrell Hall and Marvin Hall; five grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.
